LETTERS AND MANUSCRIPTS RELATING TO AMERICA.

CHARLES SPENCER, THIRD EARL OF SUNDERLAND (1674-1722), Statesman and Bibliophile, from whose papers the following lots are taken, was the second son of Robert Spencer, second Earl of Sunderland. He entered Parliament in 1695, married Anne Churchill 1700, thus gaining the support of Marlborough, through whose influence he was appointed Secretary of State for the Southern Department in 1706; dismissed by Queen Anne in 1710; became First Lord of the Treasury in 1718, but on account of the threatening attitude of Walpole and the general feeling that he was largely responsible for the South Sea fiasco, was forced to resign in 1721. As a politician he was honest and zealous, but cross-grained and tactless. As a bibliophile, he will always be famous as the founder of the Sunderland Library.

The Papers relate principally to the preparations for the projected expeditions against the French in Canada and Nova Scotia in 1708-9 which had to be abandoned for the time being for lack of the promised support from Britain, much to the disgust of the Colonial Governments associated in the venture, who had been put to much trouble and expense in making their preparations. The necessary ships and men could not at that time be spared from England as they were more urgently required in Portugal. In 1710 the Provincials successfully captured Port Royal in Nova Scotia and the following year the postponed big expedition was secretly sent out from England and sailed against Quebec, the Fleet under Admiral Sir Hovenden Walker and the military forces under Brigadier General John Hill. The whole expedition was wrecked by a storm at the mouth of the River St. Lawrence, after which the venture was entirely abandoned and peace was restored by the treaty of Utrecht in 1713.

CAROLINA.

156 Letter from the Lords Proprietors of Carolina, to the Earl of Sunderland, Craven House, December ye 11th, 1708, announcing the appointment of Major-Edward Tynte to the position of Governor of the Province, and asking his Lordship to recommend him to Her Majesty's approbation, signed by Lords Craven and Beaufort, Sir John Colleton, and two others of the Lords Proprietors, 1 p. 4to.

157 The signed Petition of Captain Thomas Welsh to His Excellency William, Earl of Craven, and the rest of the Lords Proprietors of Carolina, dated December 4th, 1708, Attested by William Maggot, John Kenneway, and John Jackson, Members of the Carolina Assembly, 2 pages, folio ; and another.

* * * Captain Welsh petitioned for relief from the arbitrary conduct of the Governor in extorting from him the sum of two hundred pounds the value of fifteen slaves presented to him by the friendly Indians as a remuneration for his successful co-operation in an expedition against the Chocta nation, allies of the French. The Governor claimed them on the grounds that they were intended as a present to himself, and threatened the Captain with imprisonment if he failed to deliver them up or in lieu pay the above mentioned sum with ten pounds added for drawing up the bond.

- 158 Johnson (Sir Nathaniel) Governor of Carolina, L. s., South Carolina, June 9th [1709], 1½ pages, folio, in relation to the treason of Captain Thomas Nearne, with two enclosures.

I should not presume to trouble your Lords<sup>p</sup> with this Letter were it not to give you<sup>r</sup> Lordsh<sup>p</sup> ye following account wherein I think her Majesties Interest and Honour is concerned.

We having lately passed an Act of Assembly in this Province for regulating ye Indian Trade one Capt. Nairne was appointed by ye said Act to be an Agent to reside amongst y<sup>e</sup> Indians. But instead of doing ye business of his Agency as ye Act directed him when he came amongst ye Indians he was not content with taking ye Liberty to abuse y<sup>e</sup> Government and all persons in authority here, but he took ye Lawless Liberty with his Tongue as publickly to declare that ye Prince of Wales came out of the Loins of King James, and that he was lawfull heir to the Crown and that no one ought to take up Arms against him. This being a matter of dangerous consequence I committed him to prison and I will secure him till such time as I shall receive directions from your Lord<sup>p</sup>—etc., etc.

- 159 Nearne (Captain Thomas) Signed Copies of the Petitions of Captain Thomas Nearne to Queen Anne, William Lord Craven and the Lords Proprietors of Carolina, praying for redress against the tyranny of Governor Johnson [1708], 2 and 3 pages, folio, respectively; L. s., Charlestown in South Carolina, 16th October, 1708, 2½ pages, folio, to the Earl of Sunderland stating his case, and asking him to recommend his Petition to the Lords Proprietors; with 5 enclosures bearing on the case (8)

Since my imprisonment I have done myself the honour to acquaint yo<sup>r</sup> Lordship with the causes and manner of it. I have tryed all Legall wayes for my deliverence but without effect. . . . It is impossible for yo<sup>r</sup> Lordsp to conceive the hardships those men lye under in this Province whom Gov<sup>r</sup> Johnson is resolved to ruine, nor the shamefull methods he takes to accomplish his designs—etc., etc.

- 160 Nearne (Captain Thomas) A. L. s., South Carolina, July ye 18th, 1708, 5 pages, folio, to the Earl of Sunderland giving an account of his travels and observations taken while acting as an Agent and Itenerary Justice amongst the Indians.

Having been Employed by the Gener<sup>ll</sup> Assembly of this Province in the Quality of an Agent and Itenerary Justice among the Indians subject to this Government. Amongst other things useful to be known for the Safety and Interest of the Colony, I aply<sup>ed</sup> myself in particular to have a very minute account of all People, as well European as Salvages from Virginia to the Mississippi. I have had a Personall view of these Places either formerly, when a Commander in these Warres, or this year by travelling. Altho my Enquiries and Searches of this kind are not yet perfect and finished yet considering ye Juncture, that peace must of necessity in some small time be concluded I could not dispense with myself, from laying before y<sup>r</sup> Lordship a mapp of such Travells and Observations as I have already taken: To the end your Lordship may at one view perceive what part of ye Continent we are now possest of, and what not, and procure the Articles of Peace to be concluded in such a manner that the Limits of the English American Empire may not be unreasonably crampt up. Your Lordship may depend upon the Inland Topography to be exact as anything of this kind can well be, and the numbers of the Inhabitants I took with the greatest care—etc., etc.

The Map of which the writer speaks is unfortunately not with the letter, but the details given by him of the Indians inhabiting the Southern English and French Colonies, the trade done with them, and the efforts of the contending Powers to secure their friendship are of GREAT INTEREST AND IMPORTANCE.

CONNECTICUT.

- 165 THE HUMBLE ADDRESS OF THE GOVERNOUR AND COMPANY OF THE COLONY OF CONNECTICUT IN NEW ENGLAND, TO QUEEN ANNE, Hartford, May 12, 1709, assuring Her Majesty of the loyal support of the Colony in the projected expedition against the French at Canada. Signed by Gurdon Saltonstall, Governor of Connecticut, and Caleb Stanly, Secretary to the General Assembly; folio, with Saltonstall's covering letter to the Earl of Sunderland, Hartford, May 12, 1709, 1 page, 4to (2)

- 166 Saltonstall (Gurdon) Governor of Connecticut, A. L. s., New London, February 3rd, 1709-10 to Col. Nicholson with regard to the Expedition against Canada, 2½ pp. 4to

Tho I am very sensible that the service you were pleased to undertake for the good of these Provinces, after you got from y<sup>e</sup> Congress at Rehoboth to Boston, did require you to make the greatest hast overseas, and to take ye opportunity which presented in a few days after you got to Boston. . . . I made all the hast I could to overtake you, but found you were embarked and gone before I could reach New London. I am very sensible by what I have often heard you say, the hazard these Colonies will be in if a Peace should leave Canada and Nova Scotia in ye French hands, and the great advantage it would be if those Countries be reduced. . . . If Her Majty should revive the Expedition next summer, it may not be best to improvd by the way of the Lake only the 5 Nations of Indians with such a small number of English that are used to ye Indian manners to conduct them, while in the mean time the Quotas of these Southern Colonies go in transports to Québec. My reasons for this are several—etc., etc.

The Way and Manner that St. John was taken according to the best information [I] could gett of both French and English, 2¼ pages, folio, unsigned, and copies of 5 other papers bearing on the subject (8)

The misfortunes of this country are very great by our Enemies taking of the Garrison of St. John's as is supposed and upon good grounds believed to be through Treachery as I doubt not Cap<sup>t</sup>. Pickering will informe your Excellency by evidence he may have taken for that purpose with the mismanagement of affairs and the little care taken of Garrisons

Sterling or one hundred Qtls of Fish p boat and binding them under a Contract of Neutrality and leaving a French Commissioner over them which is such a disgrace to the British Government that none but the illiterate people of this Barbarous country would have agreed unto being bugbeard by there threats and led into a snare by persons of greater noate which I thought would have acted more prudently, but time and truth will evidence the same—etc., etc.

to its reason and duty. * * * The Governor and Council in this Address attributes the cause of all the unrest in New Jersey at the period entirely to the turbulent and disloyal principles of Lewis Morris and Samuel Jennings, two men notoriously "known to be uneasy under all Government, men never known to be consistant with themselves, men to whom all the factions and confusions in the Government of New Jersey and Pennsylvania for many years are wholly owing, men that never have had the confidence to declare in open Council that Your Majesty's Instructions to your Governours in these Provinces shall not oblige or bind them, and this is done by them, as we have all the reason in the world to believe, to incourage not only this Government, but also the rest of y<sup>r</sup>. Maj<sup>tys</sup>. Governments in America, to throw off y<sup>r</sup>. Maj<sup>tys</sup>. Royall Perogative, and consequently to involve all your Dominions in this part of the World, and the honest, good, and well meaning People in them in confusion, hoping thereby to obtain their wicked purposes."
